

Short CV

Panayiotis Curtis, since 2020 is an associate professor at the Business Administration Department of National and Kapodistrian University of Athens (UOA). He received his BA in Economics from the University of Athens in 1977, his M.A in Economics from YORK University (Toronto-Canada) in 1979, his Master in Public Administration from the School of Public Administration of Carleton University (Ottawa-Canada) in 1981 and his PhD from Harokopio University (HUA), Department of Economics and Sustainable Development in 2004.

PROFESSIONAL CAREERS

1983-1984: Ministry of National Economy-Department of Private Investments
1984-1986: Agricultural Bank of Greece, Department of Agricultural Industries, Unit of Business financial restructuring and liquidation
1986- 2005: Business consultant, provided strategic financial advices to banks, public entities, municipalities and private business
1993-5: National School of Public Administration. He was appointed education advisor with the task of designing comprehensive education strategies and portfolios
1986-2013: Associate Professor at Chalkis Technological Institute
2013-2019 : Associate Professor at the Technological Institute of Central Greece
2019-today: Associate Professor at National and Kapodistrian University-Department of Business Administration

His Skills and Interests include: Financial analysis and business strategy, Performance measurement, Data Envelopment Analysis, Value management for sustainable and inclusive growth, Corporate governance, Internal Audit

He has been a member of several International Associations: Strategic Management Society, Eastern Economic Association(USA), European Evaluation Society, Canadian Evaluation Society, Training Information Network.

He has reviewed several papers in International Journals.

He has published more than 40 papers in International Journals